WORDS AND MUSIC BY

Geo. Thatcher.

SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH MUSIC ALBUM

SUPPLEMENT TO THE

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

SUNDAY, APRIL 22 1900

PUBLISHED BY FEIST & FRANKENTHALER, NEW YORK.

AFFECTIONATELY DEDICATED TO ABE HOLZMANN, Composer of "SMOKY MOKES." and "BUNCH O' BLACKBERRIES."

SAY, SUZ! HOW 'BOUT YOU?

Words & Music by GEO. THATCHER.

Moderato.

If I knew where I could find a nice con-
I dont want to be too for-ward but I'm ven-ient lit-tle flat, In a good neighbor-hood, I would get-ting slightly scared, I'll be late if I wait, Yet, I have it fixed and furnished And I'd set-tle down at that, Yes. I wouldn't want to hear her say, "She real-ly nev-er cared!" Cause I'd Copyright 1899 by Feist & Frankenthaler, 1227 Broadway N.Y.

English Copyright and Performing rights secured & reserved would, if I could;—'Cause I'm get - ting tired of liv - ing like I hate, such a fate.—Half a doz - en times I said I would dis - used to And there's some one that I've just been in - tro - cov - er. If it wouldn't make her glad to know I

- duced to, She must think a lot of me, 'Cause she love her, But I al - ways lost my nerve, 'Cause it's smiled and mod - est - ly Hung her head, when I said:—

more than I de - serve, And in - stead, then I said:—

CHORUS

"Say, Suz, do you think you would re - fuse!

mf – ff

If I said you was de on - ly gal Id choose

To be my stead - y com - pa - ny?

Say, Suz' how 'bout you?" 'bout you?"

loco

ff